

New & Noteworthy

Day in and day out, we use the same brushes to apply our favorite powders, concealers and shadows, but how often do we clean them? With each use, brushes pick up bacteria, oils and excess product, so be good to your skin by treating your brushes with Clinique's new Brush Cleaner. Just spray on the convenient liquid to quickly clean and disinfect once a week. Your skin will thank you; $12.50 ... Cargo introduces a limited edition Liquid Shadow Collection this March/April. A Sephora exclusive, this set of six miniature liquid shadow gels goes on wet, dries perfectly, and stays crease free for hours; $22 ... Thin, drab hair can be just as much of a hassle as thick and unruly manes, so give limp locks a boost by using PureOlogy's Thickening Masque. A
